A man with curly hair and glasses, wearing an orange short-sleeved shirt and shorts, is sitting in a white armchair and playing a dark ukulele. He is in a sunlit room with large windows in the background showing a car and some outdoor plants. To his left is a small green round table with a green lamp and a small potted plant. To his right is a blue vinyl record player with a pink record on it. In the foreground, there are large green plants. The floor is wooden, and there is a patterned rug in the bottom left corner.
